Election/Restrictions

1. Applicant's election without traverse of Group I in filed Nov. 6, 2003 is acknowledged.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

2. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

3. Claims 19 and 20 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being clearly anticipated by Hofstetter et al. Pat. No. 6,190,157, see col. 3, lines 25-33.

Allowable Subject Matter

4. Claims 1-18 and 21 are allowed.

The prior art does not teach the first, second and third mold portions with the cam follower in a movable track for the separation of the pair of space defining surfaces of the third mold wherein a power operator is responsive to a signal to move the pair of space defining surfaces from the pre-release position to a full release position. Additionally, the movement of the cam follower moving from the full release position toward the second mold portion returning the space defining surfaces to a closed position with the cam follower moving outside of the cam track is not taught by the prior art.
